

Here at the Center for Survivors our services include advocacy, individual and group therapy, and crisis intervention. All services are free and confidential.

Advocacy

Advocates can assist students, staff, faculty, and community members with:

- Understanding your reporting options and navigating the reporting process with the police or university
- Academic or employment support measures and resources
- Personal assistance, crisis support, and community referrals

Individual & Group Therapy

- Therapy is for MSU Students and is client-centered, strengths-based, trauma-informed, holistic, intersectional, and empowering
- Our therapists are trained in evidence based treatment modalities such as CPT and EMDR
- A variety of different groups and workshops are offered every academic semester and are available for students and community members

Crisis Intervention

- Crisis intervention provided by staff during business hours - walk-in or call: (517) 355-3551
- Crisis Hotline is available 24/7 at (517)-372-6666
- The Crisis Chat is available on our website at centerforsurvivors.msu.edu 7 days a week from 10:00 am- 10:00 pm

We believe in the strength and resiliency of all people impacted by sexual violence. We stand with survivors against all forms of social injustice by promoting individual healing and building an empowered, inclusive, community.
